Want to become a more confident leader?

Being a good leader is more than just being a good manager. It takes character, self-belief, empathy, creativity, inspiration and a thousand other skills and qualities.

The Confident Leader? is a highly-successful course designed to give leaders at any level in any type of organisation the confidence to be more effective in their role.

The course is a 2-day residential set at the historic and famous Egypt Mill Hotel in Nailsworth, Gloucestershire, just 15 minutes from the M5 motorway.

Delegates on The Confident Leader? will receive a unique insight into what makes a good leader, built around four keystones: ● Understanding Yourself
● Understanding Others ● Communicating Your Message ● The Leadership Toolbox.

The Confident Leader? is led by Iain Francis of Emerald Training, supported by: ● NLP expert Ann George of Kanaloa ● Relations expert Jackie Grier of Emerald Parent Coaching and ● Communications expert Robin Fletcher of Reflex.

Limited to just 10 delegates, The Confident Leader? offers everything from practical advice to personal one-to-one coaching and guarantees to give you the confidence to be a truly better leader.

To book your place or find out more contact Sian Darby at Emerald Training.
